Block Sampler A La Carolyn

Barb Trenary

Barb will show you Carolyn's fast and easy pieced wall-sized sampler of favorite quilt blocks for quilters of all levels. Blocks taught are: Ohio Star, bowtie, log cabin, flying geese, Dresden Plate, applique, variable stars, hole in the barn door, asymmetrical stars, double 4 patch, checkerboard, hourglass, and Bargello.

Barb Trenary has taught a variety of classes over the years. She is also a fabulous founding Retreat instructor.

Quilt Clinic Carolyn Cavanaugh

The Doctor is in - no appointment needed.

Do you have a quilt you've always wanted to make but think it might be difficult? Or maybe you just need some moral support? Come to the Quilt Clinic for any help you need. Carolyn will be there to show you easy techniques to make piecing the top easier, help layer the quilt, and suggest methods of quilting and finishing the edges. Whether this is your first quilt or your 100th, come join the fun at the Quilt Clinic.

Clinic instructor Carolyn Cavanaugh is a wiz at solving problems. That's why she loves teaching the quilt clinic. She's been quilting since the mid-seventies and teaching quilting since the nineties!

About our Fall Retreat...

Sept. 25-28, 2011

The Vashon Island Sewing Retreat, is sponsored by the non-profit Stitching Girls Society, whose mission is to encourage, educate and provide opportunities for creative expression through the art and craft of sewing including quilting, fiber and needle arts.

Stitching Girls Society is a welcoming community for new and returning Retreaters. We offer twice-yearly retreats. The September Retreat offers you a sewing vacation with classes and friendship. The Spring Mini offers fun and sewing in a 'Do Your Own Thing!' structure. This year's Mini is Friday April 29 through the afternoon of Sunday May 1st 2011. Both retreats are at Camp Burton on Vashon Island.

Camp Burton provides a peaceful and tranquil setting to retreat from the cares of everyday life. It is a wonderful time for you to create. We offer sewing and quilting classes as well as space to 'Do Your Own Thing'.

For more details and photos, visit www.VashonIslandSewingRetreat.com. For those who place a $50 deposit, Retreat information and a class supply list will be mailed to you in August.

To become a member, visit our web site at www.StitchingGirlsSociety.org and share the camaraderie of this vibrant and creative fabric and fiber community. Members receive $25 discount on one retreat per year.

Classes .....

The Un-Tailored Jacket

Cheryl Tolbert

Make a terrific jacket that is easy to build a wardrobe around. We will construct a jacket with set-in sleeves and facings. Optional details include collars, cuffs, patch or inseam pockets and lining.

Cheryl has some great techniques for doing an easy lining/underlining using fusible interfacing.

You have the option to get creative with your choice of fabric(s) and closures.

Cheryl Tolbert has a degree in Home Economics. She has taught for Hancock and is now teaching at Pacific Fabrics. Cheryl is a founding Retreat instructor.

Do Your Own Thing!

Come and enjoy the camaraderie in this bring your own projects - no instructor provided class. This is a stress free, work or non-work zone! Bring your sewing machine or your knitting needles. The choice is all up to you to work on UFOs (UnFinished Objects) or start something new. Either way you still are in on all the fun!

Quick Tricks For Shirts and Blouses

Peggy Garber

Start by getting your pattern to fit, then make a few special changes and you are ready to go. Learn simple tricks that produce professional looking collars, cuffs, yokes, plackets and pockets in less time than you thought. Learn flat felled or french seams for a classic, durable finish.

Peggy Garber has a degree in Fashion Design, experience in the apparel industry and in teaching for community college, and adult ed. She is a founding instructor of our Retreat.

Quilter's Tote

Janice Gow

Using 'On the Go Tote'(c) pattern you will make a tote that holds your 24-inch and smaller rulers and cutting mats, along with everything else you need. The handles make it easy to carry and the 4-inch depth allows space for fabric. Store and organize your projects here.

Janice Gow loves making bags and teaching. She also is the manager at the 4th Ave Pacific Fabrics Outlet in Seattle.
